

Slade and Co. Assessments

Chaulk and Barnes- Will not , I fear, be able to maintain their families these times.

John Chaulk and sons - Do not see that they can make it out if they don't have credit for winter diet.

Thomas Cole - In independent circumstances.

Thomas Clouter - In good circumstances and I consider him a better dealer than Cole because he has a large family and is a considerable consumer of goods.

Richard Cole - Is very well off and I consider him a good trader.

George Crew - Bad with him as the rest, but I consider that he deals fairly and I hold him in favourable consideration.

Thomas Flinn and father and mother - No idea that he will be able to pay under the winter supplying system.

John, Robert and William Hobbs and father and mother -Have a little better opinion of these than of the former but not much.

James Hill - Have the same opinion of and hold him in the same estimation as George Crew.

Nebuchardnezzar Tucker - Ditto

White and Cole - Bad with them now, but have a favourable opinion of their industry and honesty.
